

Thomas Haley · Stories (covered over the years)

- 1972-73: Studies photography at the University of Oregon, School of Fine Arts, in the classical «West Coast» tradition of large-format photography. Strong interest in ethnic-sociological approach.
- 1972: Bonnieux, France. Photographic project in association with the University of Oregon to document life in a French village; 4 x 5 view camera.
- 1974: Moves to Paris, France. Studies at the Sorbonne and the American College in Paris, majoring in art history.
- 1978-79: Moves to New York City. Enrolls in N.Y.U. Film School; works on various professional film productions during this period.
- 1979: Hired as photo researcher at MAGNUM Photo Agency in New York. Photo essay on young boxer Hector Comacho.
- 1980: Returns to Paris with wife and works for MAGNUM, Paris Bureau, as photo researcher. Begins freelancing at this time.
- 1982: Joins VISIONS Photo Agency. Feature story on «British Butler School» published in GEO. Receives POY (Picture of the Year) award from the University of Missouri for this story.
- 1983: Begins collaboration with SIPA PRESS.
Philippines: the beginning of the «People's Power» movement that ultimately brings down the Marcos regime.
- 1984: Industrial catastrophe in Bhopal, India.
Receives World Press Award – First prize portrait series for this coverage. Inter-ethnic violence in India following assassination of Indira Gandhi.
- 1986: «Snap Elections» in the Philippines and subsequent events that led to the fall of the Marcos regime. Civil war and famine in Southern Sudan; one of the first reporters to meet Sudanese People's Liberation Army leader John Garang in his southern stronghold.

- 1987: «Mendiola Massacre», Philippines, one year after Corazon Aquino ascends to power, peasants are shot down during demonstration in front of presidential palace. This story was widely published: TIME, Paris Match, Stern.
- Photo essay on the New People's Army, the grass roots communist rebellion to the Marcos and the Aquino governments in the Philippines.
- South Korea: Student demonstrations that ultimately brought down the military regime of Chun Doo-Whan and led to a new era of political democratization. Covers the presidential campaign in South Korea on assignment for U.S. News & World Report. Receives POY award from University of Missouri for this coverage.
- 1988: Stirrings in Eastern Europe: Covers the renewed activity of Lech Walesa and Solidarność in Poland.
Catastrophic earthquake in Soviet Armenia.
- 1989: China: Feature on renegade gold mining in Canton. The beginnings of student demonstrations in Peking that lead to the tragedy of Tian'anmen Square.
Poland: First free elections in Poland shot for Time Magazine. Covers major news events in eastern Europe leading to the end of Soviet communism and the Cold War: Berlin, Prague, Bucharest.
Outer Mongolia: feature shot for L'EXPRESS.
- 1990: «Jesuits Around the World»; commemoration of Ignatian Year.
- 1991: The First Gulf War, on assignment for Time Magazine, covering Jordan.
Kurdish Refugees on the border between Iraq and Turkey.
Begins «Holy Waters», long-term project.
Balkan conflict: war between Serbs and Croats in eastern Slavonia.
Photo exhibit Visa Pour L'Image.
- 1992: «Holy Waters»: India, Haiti, Israel.
Bosnia: beginning of the siege of Sarajevo; first of many trips to cover this story.

- 1993: Israel recognizes the PLO.
Israel and Gaza Peace Accords, shot for TIME and U.S. News & World Report.
- 1994: Gaza and Jericho: Arafat's historic return to Palestine.
Rwanda: French troop withdrawal and Hutu refugees into Zaire. Haiti: U.S. military intervention to bring J.B. Aristide back to power.
- 1995: France: Covers French presidential candidate Lionel Jospin. Bosnia: NATO troops deployed.
- 1996: Bosnia: Elections shot for TIME.
Eastern Zaire: Hutu refugees return in mass exodus back to Rwanda.
Belgrade: Demonstrations against Milosevic regime.
- 1997: Iran: Presidential elections shot for L'EXPRESS
Covers Lionel Jospin, France's new prime minister.
Photographs various drug-related programs in S.E. Asia for the United Nations Drug Control Program (UNDCP).
Mary Robinson, UN High Commissioner for Human Rights, makes inaugural visit to Rwanda.
- 1998: Crisis in Indonesia.
Begins 4 x 5 project to document destruction in Bosnia.
- 1999: Mongolia: first Tsam ceremony since 1937, when prohibited by Communists.
Balkans: NATO intervention in Kosovo, for Time Magazine.
India: Medha Patkar leads struggle against big dams on the Narmada River.
- 2000: India: Information Technology – Bangalore, Hyderabad, Kerala.
Gaza: Return of Arafat after unsuccessful Camp David talks.
«Child Victims of Israeli-Palestinian Conflict» for Marie-Claire France.
- 2001: Nigeria: Christian evangelical movement for Focus Magazine.

- 2002: Havana, Cuba: Jérôme Savary creates musical comedy «Chano Pozo».
 Israel: Archaeologist Israel Finkelstein, on site of Megiddo.
 French presidential elections, covering Lionel Jospin.
 Arafat «prisoner» in Mukata headquarters surrounded by Tsahal.
 South Africa: «Dance For All», classical dance for township kids in Capetown, shot for Le Monde II.
- 2003: Ivory Coast: Anti-French troubles; evacuation of French nationals.
 New York: Demonstrations against U.S. invasion of Iraq.
 Israel: Archeological sites shot for Sciences & Vie.
 Baghdad: After the Fall of Saddam Hussein.
 Israel/Palestine: «The Wall», the separation barrier.
- 2004: Washington D.C.: Jérôme Savary, «La Vie Parisienne», Kennedy Center. «America Mon Amour», report in Oregon before presidential elections.
 Kiev, Ukraine: Orange Revolution.
- 2005: India: Tamil Nadu, aftermath of the Tsunami in South East Asia.
 Santa Maria, Calif: Michael Jackson trial town.
 French «NON» to the European Constitution.
 Bosnia: «Bosnia + 10»; return to this war-ravaged land ten years later.
 New Orleans, LA: aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.
 «Darwin vs. Intelligent Design», Dover, PA. for Figaro Magazine.
- 2006: Colombia: Ingrid Betancourt story for Elle Magazine.
 India: Dominique Lapierre in Calcutta; Elle Magazine.
 New Orleans, La: Jérôme Savary creates musical comedy «Looking for Josephine».
- 2007: Kosovo, for Figaro Magazine.
 Segolene Royal, presidential candidate for Socialist Party in France.
 «Social Business», Danone & Grameen Bank partnership in Bangladesh.
 «The Wall», web documentary on the separation barrier in Israel.
- 2008: Kosovo: After Independence; Figaro Magazine.
 Annual Report for Danone: Indonesia, Argentina.

«Danone Nations Cup», report and multimedia production for Danone.

«Shall We Overcome...?», web documentary on the United States before the presidential elections.

2009: Annual Report for Danone: Brazil, Japan, Senegal, Russia, Italy.
«Danone Nations Cup», report & multimedia production.
«Facts on the Ground», web documentary project on East Jerusalem.

www.thomashaley.com · info@thomashaley.com